Comprehension Quiz

Watch the video. These stories were used for the vocabulary quizzes. Below, you will find interpretations for each sentence in each story. However, they are mixed up. Put the sentences in the correct order by writing the correct order number for each sentence. (Hint: Write your interpretations first).

Part 1

- ___ I told him I was hearing and learning ASL.
- ___ He told me it was across from the yellow store where you can buy food, drinks and candy and next to the bathroom.
- ___ Yesterday, I left my house, got in my car and went to school.
- ___ I was walking around looking for my sign language classroom.
- ___ I said, "Thank you," and walked away.
- ___ He said, "Yes, right!"
- ___ He said he was in that class before.
- ___ I couldn't find it.
- ___ I looked at my watch and told him I had 11 minutes to get to class.
- ___ It was the first day and I was really excited.
- ___ He asked me if I was deaf.
- ___ He said he knew where the class was.
- ___ I tapped a man on the shoulder and asked him where I could find classroom number 256.

Part 2

- ___ I said thank you and left.
- ___ She looked about 66 years old.
- ___ I was looking for the restaurant.
- ___ I saw a woman sitting on a bench.
- ___ Two weeks ago, I planned to meet my friend for lunch on Wednesday afternoon.
- ___ She was wearing a blue plaid v-neck shirt.
- ___ I tapped the woman on the shoulder and asked her where the restaurant was.
- ___ And I really wanted a Pepsi soda-pop.
- ___ She told me it was across from the store where her brother works.
- ___ She was a short black woman with short black hair.

Expression Quiz

By now, you have learned how to sign several phrases in ASL. In the lesson, I am going to give you 15 statements and questions. You should know how to sign them all. Sign each statement and question in the mirror. Then, on this page, write down exactly what you signed. Just write the signs and order of signs you used. If you can, it would actually be better if you could videotape yourself signing these. Then, compare how you signed these statements and questions with how Christine signed them in the video.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____
7. _____
8. _____
9. _____
10. _____
